

My Road to College Pledge™

Written by Savannah C. Jones, PhD

All Rights Reserved

I, _____, on this day, _____, do hereby pledge to go to college.

I pledge to stay in school, do my best and demonstrate my capacity to perform as an outstanding student.

I pledge to use 'college words' as I grow intellectually and emotionally.

I pledge never to lose site of my desire and plans to attend college because the world needs me. I am capable and I must do my part.

I pledge to remember always that I am bold, I am amazing, I am confident, I am strong!

I pledge to make choices that will allow me to retain my personal freedom.

I pledge to keep my personal power and not give my power to those who will make negative decisions about my education, my life and my freedom.
